Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

This is a first office action for serial number 10/615617, entitled Undirectional Fiber Reinforced Sheets in a Thermoplastic Matrix, filed July 9, 2003.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fyfe, US Patent # 5,043,033.

Fyfe discloses the claimed invention in a concrete column supporting an overhead load and having a base and resting on a surface, a process of strengthening the column to increase its ability to withstand a typical physical loading accompanying an earthquake, comprising the steps of defining a work area (15) about the surface of the column to which the strengthening is to be applied, the work area defined by circumferential marginal edges arranged in a spaced - apart relation about the column (column 5, lines 21-23 and 48-51), over wrapping the work area (15) with at least one layer of a unidirectional reinforced thermoplastic sheet (27, 44), the sheet wrapped around the column (column 5, lines 51-53), welding the sheet to the column (column 8, lines 43-45), injecting a filler into an annular space between the sheet and the column following the welding (column 5, lines 53-55); and, the sheet (27) has a thickness of from about 0.1 mm to about 3 mm (column 6, lines 58-59).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fyfe in view of Servin, US Patent # 5,464,488.

Fyfe discloses the claimed invention as stated above in claim 1, except for the sheets are lapped joined via ultrasonics. Servin teaches that it is known in the art to provide overlapped fabrics joined together by ultrasonics. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the method step of using ultrasonics as taught by Servin to join lapped sheets of Fyfe in order to provide a method for joining sheets that may be formed in one hour (less time), as compared to the 80 hours typically required to form a woven seam in fabrics (column 3, lines 4-9).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3 and 4 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
